BACHELOR OF ARTS IN

World Humanities

Mercer University's Bachelor of Arts in World Humanities explores cultures worldwide, aligning with the University's focus on a global perspective. The World Humanities major equips students with essential tools and approaches to analyze, understand, and navigate different cultures and diverse interactions in our interconnected world.

The humanities classes explore topics such as:

- Globalization, or Mundialización (world-forming)
- Connections between different oceanic regions and areas worldwide
- Cultural movements and migrations of people across the globe
- Comparing colonial, national, or global developments from different perspectives
